A hand-drawn map on a piece of paper. The map shows a large, irregularly shaped landmass. In the upper right, there is a smaller, more complex landmass. To the left of the main landmass is a smaller, elongated landmass. Below the main landmass, there are several small, isolated landmasses. The map is labeled with three names: 'MAIN POINT' in the upper center, 'FOX ISLAND' on the left, and 'FISH CREEK' at the bottom center. The drawing is done in black ink on a light-colored, slightly textured paper.
